Dear [Redacted]

STAT

This is to confirm our appointment next Wednesday, 16 January. My flight, Continental 195, arrives at Houston Intercontinental at 10:10 a.m., your time.

I shall call you upon my arrival. Let me repeat, however, that I am perfectly able to take a cab to your house, should this be more convenient for you.

I look forward to chatting with you. Several of your friends to whom I have talked agree that you were a key player in the events about which I am writing.

Again, please know of my appreciation for your willingness to help us in this manner. Should something come up, I can be reached at [Redacted]

STAT

Sincerely,

JS
